

In Lieu of my Latte

Okay...

Think about what you spend on coffee, tea, or lattes each week. In lieu of a latte a day for a week, we'd like you to contribute to our fence fund. If you're used to having a Venti latte every day, you're spending just under $5 per day (not including tip) on your beverage of choice. For just one week, would you sacrifice your lattes for a fence to help provide a safe outdoor environment for our children?

Thank you!
